terian Church. His life on two continents has made him appreciate America and he sometimes wonders if sharp critics of the U. S. aren't in service of a foreign nation. Rev. Berg said he believes America has been blessed by God because of its goodness to other nations and that if it abandons this ideal, God will withdraw His blessings.

Mrs. Daniel S. Spiers, president of the State Federation presided over the first session.

This was the first time the federation had acted by vote on "Target-TV". The club voted to send a statement to the presidents of the three National Television Networks protesting sex and violence in television programming. Club women were asked to bombard television officials this month with letters of protest.

Mrs. Spiers praised the club women for their efforts in a variety fo areas including education, on which they have spent $125,000; conservation which has included the recycling of 2,400 automobiles; the Justice for Juveniles program of volunteer service in correctional institutions; and consumer concern, which has included a survey showing poor consumer education in schools.

Mrs. R. Franklin Foy of Richmond spoke to the group at the prayer breakfast on Thursday morning, which brought the meeting to a close. Mrs. Foy used the metapher of four ships to convey her impression of a fulfilled life. She reminised about driving beside the ocean and seeing four ships - a little sailboat, a speedboat with a playboy, an old ship in mothballs and an ocean-going vessel.

Some lives are like the sailboat, she said. They're good people but they're not going anywhere. Some are like speedboats, playing around forever. Some are like the old ship, so tied up in problems and anxiety that they can't move. "We really should be like the ocean-going ship, but we can be only if our lives go to the ocean depths of infinite wisdom, love and power that God is".

The members and delegates attended several workshops, made their way through parties, banquets, receptions, and award ceremonies, art and crafts exhibits.

Those attending the convention from Appomattox were Mrs. H. Webster Babcock, president of the Appomattox Woman's Club; and Mrs. Henry C. Moore, club delegate. Attending from the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club were Mrs. Richard D. Robinson, Mrs. John Fedison and Mrs. Robert Carter.

NEW MARKET DAY SET FOR MAY 11

NEW MARKET, VA. - The 8th annual reenactment of the 1864 Battle of New Market, best remembered for the gallant charge of previously untested VMI cadets, will take place here Sunday, May 11, at 2 p.m., it was announced recently.

An added weekend event this year will be a markmanship shoot Saturday, May 10, at 2 p.m. Several eight-man teams from among the reenacters will compete using Civil War style rifles and firing black powder.

A spokesman for the New Market Battlefield Park said both events will take place within the 160 acre park, and there will be no admission charge. The park was developed with private funds given to Virignia Military Institute, as a memorial to the VMI cadets in the battle.

REVIVAL SERVICE TO BEGIN MAY 2

A special "Truth for Today" Revival will be held in the Seventh-Day Adventist Church beginning Friday night, May 2, at 7:30 p.m. and continuing nightly through May 11. The speaker, Mr. R. H. Brodersen, is well known for his ability to make the Bible plain. Many subjects will be illustrated on the screen, and special features each evening will be your favorite songs being pictured on the screen, as well as movies and slides of India and Taiwan. Mr. Brodersen spent 16 years in these two countries and will show pictures that he has taken. Another feature will be the story for the children each evening.

Everyone is invited to attend this series of meetings. The Seventh-Day Adventist Church is located at the corner of Court and Short Streets in Appomattox.

The first subject to be presented is "Our Shattered World", What is Coming' This evening Mr. Brodersen will point out from the Bible what has been foretold about this day in which we live. As the Bible is made plain you will be given assurance for the future.

ANNUAL B.W.M.U. MEETING SET FOR MAY 8

The Appomattox Baptist Women's Missionary union Annual Associational meeting will be held at Bethel Baptist Church Thursday, May 8, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Talley, a pastor's wife from the Dan River Association, will be the guest speaker. She is the niece of Mike Lopez, a retired missionary who worked with Spanish people in New Mexico.

All ladies are invited. Bring a covered dish.

TOPS NEWS

by Barbara Mayberry

If you are overweight, you can draw comfort from the fact that there over 75 million overweight people in America alone! But don't use this as an excuse. TOPS has a program that is safe and sensible, because it is prescribed by your own doctor!

TOPS members enjoyed two special programs this month. On April 14, Ellen Jamerson, a member of TOPS, gave a program on her recent trip to Hawaii. Ellen was dressed in a lovely Hawaiian dress, with a flower behind her ear. She showed pictures, slides and articles bought on her trip. Ellen gave a very informative talk on Hawaii, and it was the next best thing to actually taking a trip to Hawaii for TOPS members! Thank you, Ellen!

Then on April 21, Jane Pack gave a program on a 5 step plan on makeup. She explained about the different types of makeup and vitamins TOPS members need, especially since they are dieting. This was a very interesting program and TOPS wishes to thank Jane for taking the time to visit our club!

For the month of April, we've had many new members to join! They are Judy Johnson, Ann Reynolds, Phyllis McCormick, Sandra Martin, Elaine Carson, Norma Reynolds, Rachel Harris, Mildred Coleman, Colena Roberts, Louise Saunders, and a transfer from another TOPS club, Collen Bell. We also had some returning members', Doris Almond, Elvira Hancock, Emma Forest, and Ava Almond. Welcome back, grils!

If you are interested in joining TOPS and have any questions, don't hesitate to call this number, 352-8510. Or call our leader, Doris Nash or our co-leader, Nancy Jamerson. We meet every Monday night in the Plaza Farmer's National Bank at 6:30 p.m. We'll be looking forward to meeting you!

In the last TOPS news, there was an error. It should have read, "Appointed to offices are Thelma Knight, Weight Recorder; Nancy Litchford, Cheer Lady."

MEMBER OF ALL VIRGINIA CHORUS

Marvin Watson of Appomattox County High School Choir participated as a member of All-Virginia Chorus held April 24-26 at Fairfax High School, Fairfax, Va. Marvin won this honor through vocal audition at the District III Regional Chorus. He was one of five bass singers chosen to represent the district. The All-Virginia Chorus consisted of 250 singers chosen through audition throughout the state representing the best high school vocal talent found in Virginia. The chorus was conducted by Frank Pooler, noted choral conductor of California. Marvin was accompanied at All-State Chorus by his teacher, Mrs. Karen Gibson.

FASHION 22 HAS DINNER MEETING

Mrs. Elvs Simms, of Macon Circle Drive, Lynchburg, a Fashion-Two Twenty Consultant, was guest of honor at a dinner at Maudes recently. Mrs. Simms had highest sales in cosmetics during the month of March.

Other consultants and their husbands attending the dinner sponsored by Fashion Two Twenty Cosmetics were Mrs. Isabelle Gowin of Lynchburg and Mrs. Norma Jean Martin and Mrs. Odelle Paulette, of Appomattox.
